April 2025

Dear Friends of CIS,

“The Resurrecting Life” by Rev. Christine Emmerling

April 20th is Easter Sunday, the day we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus the Christ. Christ Jesus so embodied the Father within, God Consciousness, as his entire being that his life resurrected to a new spiritual state of being. We’re all spiritual beings experiencing this 3rd dimensional world and call ourselves human beings. Many people of today say that “We are spiritual beings having a human experience.”

Science says humans are of the earth, but we’re more than an earthly life. Our spirit/soul lives before this life on earth and goes on living after this earthly life. Now Jesus the Christ awakened to his true spiritual nature of living eternally. He became master over his emotions, weather, earth elements, and death. Christ Jesus demonstrated through his resurrection of being able to appear, disappear, and at will reappear in full denseness of body. He was a fully conscious multi-dimensional being. In truth, we all are multi-dimensional beings. We just haven’t awakened those capabilities to do it at will. Yet it is possible as Jesus showed us, and it is our future normal state of being. Christ Jesus told us that we too can do these works and even greater works than these shall we do. Christ Jesus’ resurrection then isn’t a one-time miracle, but a demonstration for us to learn by.

Our planet each year goes through a process of resurrection. We call it winter when much of the earth’s plant life appears dead and animals hibernate. Then in the months of spring the earth is revitalized with renewed life. We too have our resurrections. Every night we go to sleep leaving a conscious state of our body, and then we awaken in the morning revitalized to a new day. This new day can be a new start in life.

Every day is an opportunity to see and experience life in a new way. We can do this by a change in our consciousness. Think about what holds us in our same patterns of living. Day in and day out we have our habits, thoughts and beliefs. When we start to change any one of these then its like a ripple effect that gradually shakes up the others. Then one day we realize our whole way of life has changed. For some this can be a very slow process, but with intention we can speed this process up. We can consciously evolve and awaken to our fully realized spiritual nature. Start by daily paying attention to our thoughts, our beliefs and our habits. Review and challenge them by asking, “Is it true, is it necessary, is it helpful?” What doesn’t pass the test then begin to eliminate, and replace with what is true, necessary and helpful. Don’t be surprised when that old way of life isn’t even recognizable, because we’re living life on a whole new frequency of vibration as a resurrected soul.

Spring Meditation by Rev. Teesa Stuefloten M.Div.

As I move into the season of Spring, I see God’s love for me everywhere. In the blossoming of the trees, delicate clouds of pink and white petals, I see God’s love for me. In the flowering of the Spring bulbs that lay dormant in the winter, emerging with their bright green leaves, and colorful flowers, Daffodils, Iris, Crocus, I see God's love for me. In the lush green of the rolling hillsides after the refreshing spring rains, I see God's love for me. In the delightful, cheerful songs of the birds in the trees, building nests to cradle new life, I see God's love for me. In the blue skies, so open and clear, refreshed from the rain, fluffy white clouds floating by, I see God's love for me. The whispers of the Spring breeze, sometimes gentle, sometimes strong, I feel God's love for me. In the song of joy in my heart, filled with the hope of Spring, I feel God's love for me.

What a delightful world God's love has created for me to enjoy. As I sit in the silence of a Spring meditation, I feel God's love for me. My heart is filled with your Divine love. Thank you, God.
